

H

is for

History
Honoring Each Other
Heart

This zine was created as part of the Defend/Defund exhibit.

Unfold for a poster & learning resources.

A Tiny Zine about Abolition

What is ABOLITION? It can seem like a scary big word, but the real terror is in how our communities — especially our Black communities — are policed and surveilled by the state. Here is what it means to us...

INTERFERENCE ARCHIVE

A

is for

Ancestors
Acknowledgement & Action
Accessibility
Abuse of Power
Agitation
Alternatives Are Possible

B

is for

Backing Each Other Up
Black Panthers
Bail Reform
Borders
Believing In A Future With No Cops

S

is for

Stirring things up
Status quo has got to go
Solidarity is safety is survival

I

is for

(Mass) Incarceration
Institutional Violence Investment into/divestment from Imagining the future

L

is for

Liberation
Lives Over Profits
LGBTQIA+ Justice
Leading/Learning
Together

O

is for

Occupations Organizing
Open Conversations Opting In Optimism

"Abolition is not primarily a negative strategy. It's not primarily about dismantling, getting rid of, but it's about reenvisioning. It's about building anew."

- Angela Davis
Democracy Now, 6/12/20

Want to learn more about abolition? Check out some resources at this link or scan this QR code.

bit.ly/aBOOlition

This zine was created for aBOOlition, programming which occurred on October 30-31, 2022, as part of the Defend/Defund exhibit, which looks at resistance to policing and police brutality in the 20th and 21st centuries in the United States. To read more about the exhibit, visit: interferencearchive.org/exhibition/defund/